

Dear Marketer,

Thank you for your interest in the American Marketing Association's Professional Certified Marketer™ program. By choosing to participate and become certified, you are affirming your commitment to excellence in marketing.

Enclosed, you will find the following application materials:

- Frequently Asked Questions
- Application for the Professional Certified Marketer Program
- Suggested Reading Material
- PCM Test Specifications
- Professional Certified Marketer Code of Ethics

Each of these documents contains important information that will help you apply to and prepare for the program. Please review them carefully before you complete the application.

Should you have additional questions, please do not hesitate to contact us at pcm@ama.org, or call Customer Service at 1-800-AMA-1150.

We look forward to welcoming you as a Professional Certified Marketer!

Sincerely,

Stephanie Crain
Director, Education

ELIGIBILITY

Am I eligible to become a Professional Certified Marketer?

To qualify for the program, you must have a combination of education and experience as follows:

A bachelor's degree in any discipline and 4 years of professional work experience

OR

A master's degree in any discipline and 2 years of professional work experience

Once you have met the eligibility requirements and submitted all required documentation (see below), you will receive notification and details for exam registration and scheduling

APPLYING TO THE PROGRAM

How do I apply for the PCM program?

You'll need to submit four items to be considered for the program and be approved to register for the examination:

1. Your completed and signed application
2. A signed copy of the Code of Ethics, included with your application materials
3. A notarized copy of your diploma (either bachelors or masters)

or

An official transcript from your college or university

(This document can be obtained by calling your college and requesting a transcript. There is usually a small fee associated with this service. To save a step, you can have the transcript sent directly to the American Marketing Association attn: Professional Certified Marketer Program)

4. Application fee – (refer to the tables below for pricing)

This fee is payable by check or credit card.

Your application can not be processed until all four items listed are received in the offices of the AMA.

When is the deadline for applying for the program?

There is no official deadline for applying to the program but we do suggest that your application arrive at the AMA offices at least two weeks before the beginning of your preferred testing period.

Please note that submitting your application by the deadline does not guarantee that there will be an available testing time at your local test center. If you have limited availability during the testing days, it is best to submit your application six to eight weeks in advance of your preferred testing period.

FEES

How much does it cost to become certified?

Application and examination fees (in U.S. dollars) are as follows:

	Application Fee	Test Fee	Total
Member	$ 75	$ 300	$375
Non-Member	$ 100	$ 435	$535

If you choose to prepare for the exam, the books on the Suggested Reading List vary in cost.

REGISTERING FOR AND SCHEDULING THE EXAM

Once I've been approved to take the exam, how do I register for and schedule the exam?

Signing up for the examination is a two-step process: 1. Paying for the exam and 2. Scheduling your actual exam time and place.

Step 1: Paying for the exam – For your convenience, you can pay for the examination on-line using a credit card. Once you've been accepted into the program, you'll pay your fees on-line to NetCertification, our on-line testing partner. Once your payment has been accepted, you will be given detailed instructions and a toll free number for Step 2: scheduling the actual day and time of your examination at a Prometric testing center.

Step 2: Scheduling your exam time and place -- Approximately eight weeks before the beginning of the exam period, you will be able to schedule your testing day and time at our testing center partner, Prometric. The Prometric representative will help you find the most convenient test center and testing time for you. Please note that neither the AMA nor Prometric can guarantee that your preferred time will be available. It will help if you have two or three test dates and times in mind when you call to register.

When can I take the PCM exam?

You can take your PCM exam whenever you have availability that coincides with your chosen testing center's availability.

Where can I take the PCM exam?

The PCM exam is being administered at Prometric testing centers. Prometric has over 300 comfortable and secure testing centers across the United States and Canada. After you have paid your exam fee, you will be given instructions for calling and scheduling the exam at a center convenient for you. To review the list of cities in your state or province with a testing center:

1. Go to <http://www.2test.com>
2. Select your Area of Study as Academic Professional, Government and Corporate
Select your Country and State (where applicable)
Click Next
3. In the Client/Program box, choose NetCertification
4. In the drop down boxes, select Net Net5 – 5 Hour Appointment Time Block

You'll then see a list of all the testing sites in your state. Please note that you will not be able to call your local testing center directly to book your exam time. You will be able to schedule your time only through the toll-free number you will be given after paying your exam fees.

When is the deadline for test registration?

There is no specific deadline for test registration, but it is best to pay your fees and register sooner rather than later. The later you call, the more limited the availability of test times. You will receive an e-mail reminding you of the registration deadlines.

PREPARING FOR THE TEST

What's the best way to prepare for the test?

There is no "best way" to prepare for the exam. Each person has different educational and professional backgrounds and will probably need to review different topic areas.

The PCM tests your knowledge of the core marketing concepts listed in the Test Specifications document included with this application packet. You might want to review these specifications to determine where your knowledge and skills are the least developed. From there, you can select a text(s) from the Suggested Reading Material, or some other standard marketing reference book and review the relevant sections.

If you are an AMA member and belong to a local chapter, you may also want to review with colleagues who are planning to take the exam.

Can I buy any of the texts on the Suggested Reading List from the AMA?

The AMA does not sell any of the textbooks listed. There are several possible sources:

1. Amazon.com and Barnes and Noble (bn.com)
2. A local college bookstore
3. Directly from the publisher (sales/customer service numbers are listed for each publisher)

TAKING THE TEST

What's on the test?

The PCM examination tests your knowledge of core marketing concepts. It is geared towards candidates with between two and four years of experience and either a bachelor's or an MBA degree. Please refer to the Test Specifications document for more content details.

The test consists of 210 multiple-choice questions. You will have five hours to complete the examination. The five hours includes 20 – 30 minutes of self-scheduled breaks. For sample questions, please go to <http://www.marketingpower.com/pcm> , click on the link for Sample Questions, and print 32 sample questions and answers.

I haven't taken a multiple-choice exam in a while. What can I expect?

Unlike previous exams you may have taken, this exam will be given on a computer. You'll be reading the questions on the screen and clicking on your answer choices with the mouse. If you wish to make any notes while you are taking the exam, you will be given scrap paper. If you wish, you will have a chance to practice using the system before you take the examination.

You will not be allowed to bring any books, notes, laptops, cell phones or beepers of any kind into the testing center. Complete information on taking a test at the Prometric test sites will be sent to you when you register for the exam.

SCORE REPORTING

When will I receive my score report?

You will receive an unofficial pass/fail report at the completion of your exam. At the end of the testing period, we will review and confirm the results and send official notification. If you have passed the examination, you will also receive your certification, lapel pin and other related materials.

STAYING CERTIFIED

How long is my certification valid?

The initial period of certification is three years.

How will I maintain my certification?

You can recertify every three years simply by documenting your participation in professional continuing education or other professional development activities. When you have been certified, you will receive complete details on the recertification process.

REFUNDS

Application Fee

Your application fee is non-refundable.

Test Fee

- If you have a scheduled exam date with Prometric and contact the AMA at least 48 hours before your exam date, you will have the option of rescheduling for the following test period or receiving a full refund.
- If you have not scheduled your exam and you contact the AMA less than 48 hours before the beginning of the testing period, you can schedule a date in the following testing period with no penalty.
- If you have a scheduled exam date with Prometric and contact the AMA less than 48 hours in advance of your scheduled date, you will be eligible for a $200 refund if you are an AMA member and $320 if you are NOT an AMA Member.

If you have additional questions, please call the AMA at 1-800-AMA-1150 or e-mail pcm@ama.org

PROFESSIONAL CERTIFIED MARKETER CODE OF ETHICS

Marketers who have achieved the Professional Certified Marketer designation are committed to ethical professional conduct. They have joined together in subscribing to this Code of Ethics embracing the following topics:

Responsibilities of the Professional Certified Marketer

Marketers must accept responsibility for the consequences of their activities and make every effort to ensure that their decisions, recommendations and actions function to identify, serve and satisfy all relevant publics: customers, organizations and society.

Marketers' Professional Conduct must be guided by:

1. The basic rule of professional ethics: not knowingly to do harm;
2. The adherence to all applicable laws and regulations;
3. The accurate representation of their education, training and experience; and
4. The active support, practice and promotion of this Code of Ethics.

HONESTY AND FAIRNESS

Marketers shall uphold and advance the integrity, honor and dignity of the marketing profession by:

1. Being honest in serving consumers, clients, employees, suppliers, distributors, and the public;
2. Not knowingly participating in conflict of interest without prior notice to all parties involved; and
3. Establishing equitable fee schedules including the payment or receipt of usual, customary and/or legal compensation for marketing exchanges.

RIGHTS AND DUTIES OF PARTIES IN THE MARKETING EXCHANGE PROCESS

Participants in the marketing exchange process should be able to expect that

1. Products and services offered are safe and fit for their intended uses;
2. Communications about offered products and services are not deceptive;
3. All parties intend to discharge their obligations, financial and otherwise, in good faith; and
4. Appropriate internal methods exist for equitable adjustment and/or redress of grievances concerning purchases.

It is understood that the above would include, but is not limited to, the following responsibilities of the marketer:

In the area of product development and management:

- disclosure of all substantial risks associated with product or service usage;
- identification of any product component substitution that might materially change the product or impact on the buyer's purchase decision;
- identification of extra cost-added features.

In the area of promotions:

- avoidance of false and misleading advertising;
- rejection of high-pressure manipulations, or misleading sales tactics;
- avoidance of sales promotions that use deception or manipulation.

In the area of distribution:

- not manipulating the availability of a product for the purpose of exploitation;
- not using coercion in the marketing channel;
- not exerting undue influence over the reseller's choice to handle a product.

In the area of pricing:

- not engaging in price fixing;
- not practicing predatory pricing;
- disclosing the full price associated with any purchase.

In the area of marketing research:

- prohibiting selling or fundraising under the guise of conducting research;
- maintaining research integrity by avoiding misrepresentation and omission of pertinent research data;
- treating outside clients and suppliers fairly.

Organizational Relationships

Marketers should be aware of how their behavior may influence or impact the behavior of others in organizational relationships. They should not demand, encourage or apply coercion to obtain unethical behavior in their relationships with others, such as employees, suppliers, or customers.
